Cop fired for hampering probe

Kap

Chicago Policeman Robert Gilmartin, 42, who joined the force in 1957, was fired yesterday by Supt. James B. Conlisk Jr. Gilmartin was accused of attempting to hamper the sheriff's police investigation of Dr. James Middleton, the Des Plaines physician convicted of sexual deviate assault. He was also accused of associating with Middleton, altho knowing the doctor had been convicted of assault and battery in Ohio in 1961.

Chicago today 2/21/73